Dear Jim,

I have a (modern?) composing arr. of 'Wave'
but not a written solo guitar one (but ask me about playing it in a modified tuning next time).

As for your question on Harmonics, something.
But I'm sending along some papers that may solidify some concepts & for their application in various situations. If you end up with lots of questions, please write them down & bring them to the lesson.

You know most of the concepts covered but maybe a new twist on some may reveal them selves to you through careful analysis.

Have Fun & Study Hard,

Jeff S.

As for your question on Harmonics, same thing. But I’m sending along some papers that may solidify some concepts and/or their application to various situations. If you end up with lots of questions, please write them down and bring them to the lesson. Have fun and study hard,
